What adjectives do the fans use?
Watch the video and write down an adjective that each fan uses to describe English. Now tell your classmate if you agree with what the fans said. Would you use any of these adjectives to describe your language?

Patricia said that English is great for tourism. In which jobs do you think it is important to speak English? Tell your teammate.

Speaking English
Look at the jobs below. When do you think these people would need to use English? Tell your teammate.

hotel receptionist    taxi driver    maths teacher footballer           hotel receptionist  police officer business person      shop assistant    doctor

Now try to practise short dialogues with your teammate. Student A is a tourist and Student B chooses from the list of jobs.

Writing practice
You work at an international hotel. An American tourist at the hotel has sent you an email asking for some information about your city. Write a short email about the things to do and see in your town or city.

Dear Sir/Madam
Thank you for your email. I am sure you will have a fantastic time in _______. There are many things to do and see here.
The first thing to see is.............
