

Fans in Brazil: We asked football fans in Brazil to talk about football, culture, the English language and the Premier League.

What's your favourite book, film, or music?

In this video, the fans talk about their favourite English books, films, or music.

Do you read books in English?

When you watch a film, do you watch it in English or your own language?

Do you listen to English music? Do you understand the lyrics?

How can books, films and music help your English?

Karina talking about her favourite music.

Vocabulary

To be obsessed

to only talk about one thing

A fan

a person who likes something or someone

Lyrics

the words from a song

Hammock

a type of bed that you use outside, often between two trees

A sense of humour

to have the ability to be funny

Funny

something that makes you laugh

A comedy

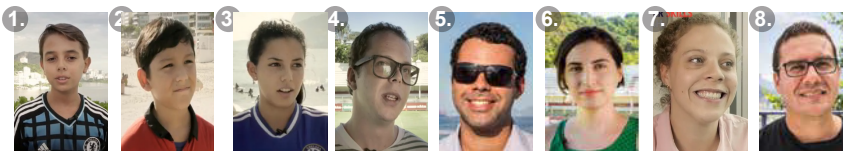

a play, movie, or book that makes people laugh

A classic

something that people have thought is fantastic for a long time

What do the fans recommend?

Watch the video and write down what each fan says is their favourite film, book, type of music, or band. Now talk to your classmate, tell him/her if you like the same things that the fans like?

Joao Pedro Mateus Genebra Peter Caio Patricia Emanuela Fernando

Speaking practice

Patricia said that you should visit important monuments if you visit Rio. Tell your teammate about the most important monuments in your city/country.

Speaking English

Imagine you were going to live alone on a desert island for one year. You can take one film, one book and one piece of music. Tell your teammate what you would choose and why?

Join the debate

What is your favourite music, film and book?

Look for Fans > Fans in Brazil and give your opinion.

Writing practice

You have seen an advertisement for a fantastic 3-day music festival in your country. Write an email to your friend, telling him/her about the festival and what music there will be there.

Don't forget to tell your friend that his/her favourite band will be at the festival too!

Hi.....

I've just seen an advert for a music festival in! It looks fantastic and I think we should go. Let me tell you all about it.
Guess who will be there? Yes, it's.....

Hope you can come,.....