Fans in Brazil: We asked football fans in Brazil to talk about football, culture, the English language and the Premier League.

What will visitors to Brazil find surprising?

Transcript

Patricia: Surprising? That's a hard question.

Fernando: I think the diversity, you know, the variety, different people, I mean, different ways of life, yeah the diversity and variety of Brazil.

Genebra: The view. The beaches, the people, the people are really, really friendly. Their really familiar too and they really like tourists.

Karina: People receive tourists really well and they really like them. So, their always going to find a way to talk to you or help you with something. And their just really nice.

Artur: The people. People in Brazil are really…..welcoming.

Mateus: The food. It's really good here.

Joao Pedro: How football is included in our society.

Aloisio: You know, the beaches and everything. Brazil is a very beautiful place and the weather makes possible to visit beaches or mountains and everything else.

Victor: I think our nature is... surprising.

Aloisio: They will be surprised about the incredible variety of things to do here.

Victor: And I think also the happiness of the people.

Patricia: Surprising? Because I think people expect Brazilians to be warm and friendly and vibrant and they really are. It's a really vibrant country but I don't think that will surprise anyone.