Listen 2

Listen to the same section again. This time complete the phrases in the boxes above.

Speaking

In pairs, look at the situations below. Take a situation and decide who is who. Practise similar dialogues to what you heard earlier. Use as many of the phrases from the listening as you can. Try to invent problems to make the dialogues more interesting.

You are a tourist. You need a taxi to take you to your hotel. You only have a credit card.	You are a taxi driver. You only accept cash.	You work in a ticket office at a football stadium.	You know nothing about football. You are trying to buy match tickets for your son's 16th birthday.
You are a waiter. You really want a big tip.	You've just finished a meal at a very expensive restaurant. You are not happy with the food.	You work in a shop. You are very busy.	You are trying to buy some trainers in a shop. You don't understand the payment system.
