

1. Vocabulary: English
Stadium: commentary box

Example: The commentary box is where the commentators sit. These are the people who describe the action for people watching on TV or listening to the radio.

2. Vocabulary: English
Stadium: club shop

Example: The club shop is the place to go if you want to buy a football shirt or other merchandise from a football club.

3. Vocabulary: English
Stadium: gate

Example: Stadiums are very large and so they have lots of gates. You have to go in the right gate to find your seat in the stadium.

4. Vocabulary: English
Stadium: terrace

Example: Terraces are rows of concrete steps where people can stand to watch a football match. There are no terraces in UK stadiums anymore, but they are still common around the world.

5. Vocabulary: English
Stadium: scoreboard

Example: The scoreboard is a where important information about the match is displayed. Sometimes scoreboards have big televisions that show replays as well as the score.

6. Vocabulary: English
Stadium: ground

Example: The ground is the pitch, stadium, car park and any other buildings attached to a football club.

7. Vocabulary: English
Stadium: dressing room

Example: The dressing room is where the players get changed before and after the match. At half-time, the players go back to the dressing room and talk to the manager.

8. Vocabulary: English
Stadium: tunnel

Example: The tunnel is the passage onto the pitch from the dressing room.

9. Vocabulary: English
Stadium: bench

Example: The bench is where the manager, coaches and substitutes sit during the match. If a player is 'on the bench', it means that they are not playing.

10. Vocabulary: English
Stadium: end

Example: Supporters from different clubs sit at opposite ends of the stadium. Stadiums have a home end for their own supporters and an away end for the visiting team's supporters.

