

1. Vocabulary: English
More Supporting: anthem

Example: An anthem is a song that represents the club. Fans often sing their club anthem at matches to encourage their team.

2. Vocabulary: English
More Supporting: booing

Example: Booing is when fans shout the word boo. This word doesn't really mean anything, but is used to express unhappiness. The players don't like it when their fans boo them.

3. Vocabulary: English
More Supporting: chanting

Example: When the fans all say the same words or phrases over and over again, this is called chanting. Fans often chant their club name or the name of a player.

4. Vocabulary: English
More Supporting: cheering

Example: When fans are happy and they shout, this is cheering. Fans usually don't cheer real words. They cheer by shouting "yay" or "woo" or even "woohoo".

5. Vocabulary: English
More Supporting: clapping

Example: Clapping is when fans hit their hands together to make a loud noise to show that they are happy and their appreciation.

6. Vocabulary: English
More Supporting: face paint

Example: Some fans like to colour their faces with face paint. They sometimes paint their club colours or club symbols on their faces.

7. Vocabulary: English
More Supporting: singing

Example: When fans get together, one way they show support for their team is by singing. There are lots of club songs that fans like to sing together.

8. Vocabulary: English
More Supporting: spectator

Example: A spectator is someone who watches a sports event like a football match.

9. Vocabulary: English
More Supporting: team colours

Example: The colours that a club plays in are called the team colours. Fans often wear clothes that are the team colours to show their support.

10. Vocabulary: English
More Supporting: waving

Example: When fans are celebrating or want to show their support, they sometimes wave their hands. Waving is normally used to get someone's attention or say good bye.

