

1. Vocabulary: English
Fouls: tripping

Example: Tripping is when one player tries to make another player trip up. This is when they try to make their opponent fall by putting their foot in front of their opponents foot.

2. Vocabulary: English
Fouls: swearing

Example: Swearing is using abusive language. If a player uses bad language, especially towards another player, the referee can show the player a red card.

3. Vocabulary: English
Fouls: pushing

Example: Pushing is when a player tries to move an opponent. Often, this will cause a player to fall over.

4. Vocabulary: English
Fouls: foul throw

Example: There are rules for how a throw-in is taken. If these are broken, it is a foul throw. E.g. If either of the player's feet are off the ground when the throw-in is taken, it is a foul throw.

5. Vocabulary: English
Fouls: dangerous play

Example: Dangerous play describes any foul that could hurt or injure another player.

6. Vocabulary: English
Fouls: time wasting

Example: A referee can caution a player for time wasting if they take too long over actions when the ball is not in play. For example, if a player takes a long time over a free kick.

7. Vocabulary: English
Fouls: spitting

Example: If a player tries to spit at another player, it is a foul. Spitting at people is really disgusting.

8. Vocabulary: English
Fouls: obstruction

Example: Obstruction is when a player gets in between another player and the ball and tries to physically stop the player.

9. Vocabulary: English
Fouls: diving

Example: Diving is when a player pretends that they have been fouled to try to win a free kick. It is a type of cheating and the referee can caution a player for doing it.

10. Vocabulary: English
Fouls: unsporting behaviour

Example: If a player acts in a way that is against the spirit of the game, it is unsporting behaviour. E.g. if a player celebrates a goal in a disrespectful way.

